Wilmington, IL – At last night’s meeting, the Wilmington City Council approved Nancy Gross as the City’s new Finance Director.

Nancy Gross has over 30 years of finance and accounting management experience, including experience in public and governmental accounting. Nancy has served as the Treasurer of the Village of Seneca for the last 8+ years. She is experienced in virtually all aspects of finance and accounting management, including financial reporting, budgeting, analysis, human resources, and grant writing. Nancy is from Morris and received her BA from Mundelein College/Loyola University in Chicago. Nancy is the proud mother of two adult children.
